Credit Terms

Where Credit Terms have been extended to the customer, only as agreed and arranged with management prior to work being starting, unless otherwise stipulated, the following shall apply.

- 1. All “Accounts” are to be paid for by the 20th of the month following the Invoice Date.
2. Overdue “Accounts” will be referred to a Collection agency which will incur additional costs payable by you. You will also be charged penalty Interest of 20% per annum on any outstanding amount from the date it is due until payment in addition to the amount owed and such interest shall also become an amount outstanding, subject to interest where unpaid.
3. If payment in full on an “Account” would cause hardship, then please consult management who will help you negotiate an acceptable repayment plan.
